LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

We will have full CCTV cameras throughout the venue that will cover areas where there is less staff coverage.

- All staff will be made aware of our crime and disorder policy that will ensure that staff are vigilant at all times to any form of crime and disorder.
- When the venue is serving alcohol there will always be a minimum of two staff within the venue to ensure any disorder will be dealt with and if crimes are committed police will be notified immediately.
- Staff have discretion to deny entry or alcohol to person deemed unfit. A challenge 25 policy is in place when serving alcohol and staff will be aware of the appropriate responsible authorities should any incidents occur. i.e Environment Protection, Police, Fire Services, Health & Safety.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

- Staff will be trained to be vigilant when serving alcohol, using challenge 25, and do not sell any alcohol to those who are intoxicated.
- Minimum of two staff members within the venue at all times

- Outside will be lit and there will be a regular presence of trained staff.
- A zero tolerance to any form of illegal substances on site. Police notified if drugs are being used on site and person asked to leave premises in compliance with the Misuse of Drugs Act 1971.

c) Public safety

- Carry out a Right to Entry Policy, whereby staff members have the right to deny access to any persons deemed unfit to enter the venue.
- Staff will be aware of first aid box and procedures.
- Effective heating and prevention of overcrowding will be in place
- Rubbish Bins and waste will be disposed of effectively
- If we were to have events and live music, the band would be warned if it was too loud, although our neighbours are very close to the building.
- Areas not permitted to customers will be locked at all times
- Fire exits are clearly illuminated

d) The prevention of public nuisance

- The whole site will be monitored by staff regularly.
- All alcohol must be and will be monitored to ensure it will be consumed in the designated areas.
- Neighbours will be notified if there is a private functions on
- we will display 'leave quietly' and 'respect our neighbours' notices

e) The protection of children from harm

- All children must be accompanied by a responsible adult at all times.
- CCTV in operation
- Challenge 25 in place at all times
- Anyone we feel is seen to be unfit will be escorted off the premise.
- Supply of alcohol will be out of reach of children

- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Section 20 of 21

NOTES ON REGULATED ENTERTAINMENT

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the following documents (which do not need to be certified).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A full birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK which includes the name(s) of at least one of the holder's parents or adoptive parents, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

- Dance: no licence is required for performances between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day, provided that the audience does not exceed 500. However, a performance which amounts to adult entertainment remains licensable.
- Cross activity exemptions: no licence is required between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day, with no limit on audience size for:
  - o any entertainment taking place on the premises of the local authority where the entertainment is provided by or on behalf of the local authority;
  - o any entertainment taking place on the hospital premises of the health care provider where the entertainment is provided by or on behalf of the health care provider;
  - o any entertainment taking place on the premises of the school where the entertainment is provided by or on behalf of the school proprietor; and
  - o any entertainment (excluding films and a boxing or wrestling entertainment) taking place at a travelling circus, provided that (a) it takes place within a moveable structure that accommodates the audience, and (b) that the travelling circus has not been located on the same site for more than 28 consecutive days.
